OFFICE OF PETITIONS

Applicant: Winters
Appl. No.: 10/820,592
Filing Date: April 8, 2004
Title: OLED MICROCAVITY SUBPIXELS AND COLOR FILTER ELEMENTS
Attorney Docket No.: 87448RLO
Pub. No.: US 2005/0225237 A1
Pub. Date: October 13, 2005

This is a decision on the request for a corrected patent application publication under 37 CFR 1.221(b), received on January 20, 2006, for the above-identified application

The request is DISMISSED.

Applicant requests that the application be republished because the patent application publication contains a material error on page 5 of the publication, as part number 21 was mislabeled as part number 19.

37 CFR 1.221 (b) is applicable “only when the Office makes a material mistake which is apparent from Office records.... Any request for a corrected publication or revised patent application publication other than provided as provided in paragraph (a) of this section must be filed within two months from the date of the patent application publication. This period is not extendable.” A material mistake must affect the public’s ability to appreciate the technical disclosure of the patent application publication, to determine the scope of the patent application publication, or to determine the scope of the provisional rights that an applicant may seek to enforce upon issuance of a patent.¹

The request for corrected publication received on January 20, 2006, was not timely filed under 37 CFR 1.221(b).

The typographical error noted by requestor wherein the part number for “subpixel 21” was misprinted as “subpixel 19” in the parts list is an Office error but the mistake is not a material error under 37 CFR 1.221(b). The mistake is a minor typographical, which does not affect the understanding of the application, as the parts are also labeled in the application. The mistake does not affect the public's ability to appreciate the technical disclosure of the patent application publication, or determine the scope of the patent application publication or determine the scope of the provisional rights that an applicant may seek to enforce upon issuance of a patent.

The applicant is advised that a "request for republication of an application previously published" may be filed under 37 CFR 1.221 (a). Such a request for republication "must include a copy of the application compliance with the Office's electronic filing system requirements and be accompanied by the publication fee set forth in § 1.18 (d) and the processing fee set forth in § 1.17 (i)." If the request for republication does not comply with the electronic filing system requirements, the republication will not take place and the publication fee set forth in § 1.18 (d) will be refunded. The processing fee will be retained.

Any request for republication under 37 CFR 1.221(a), must be submitted via the EFS system and questions or request for reconsideration of the decision, should be addressed as follows:
